Dear Friends of the Franklin Center of Beaver County, Inc.

The Franklin Center of Beaver County cordially invites you to visit our Aliquippa facilities at 524 Franklin Avenue, Aliquippa on Wednesday, June 15, 2016 during our open house that will take place from 10-2 P.M. The public has been asking for an opportunity to learn more about the Franklin Center. This is a great time for them and YOU to see all the new and innovative ways our organization has developed to improve the lives of those living in Beaver County in fact Southwestern Pennsylvania.

You will see:

- Innovative technology that is opening new worlds for Beaver County youth in both summer and afterschool programs
- Aliquippa's expanded Professional Outfitters and Variety Shoppe site
- Our community garden that has been created and tended by community service participants

In addition, you will also have an opportunity to meet the staff of the wide array of programs that are offered by the Franklin Center. City officials, representatives from local colleges, staff from partnering programs, Franklin Center Executive Board Members and, of course, many constituents of this Commonwealth will be in attendance.

Light refreshments will be served at the Broadcast Street Cafe located at 464 Franklin Avenue.

Please join us! Regrets only responses are appreciated. Please call 724-378-7547 or email vmcelvy@franklincenter.org.

In Service,

Valerie McElvy, Serving "U" Beaver County

schooled, she must obtain this credential to be eligible for FSA funds. She can include in her homeschooling self-certification that she received this state credential. An eligible institution is defined in part as one that admits as regular students only those who have a high school diploma or equivalent, are beyond the compulsory age of attendance for the school's state, or are dually enrolled at the college and a secondary school.

For students who finish homeschooling at a younger age, the Department considers them to be beyond the age of compulsory attendance if your school's state would not require them to obtain a secondary completion credential as provided under state law, or if not required by state law, has completed a secondary school education in a home-school setting that qualifies as an exemption from compulsory attendance under state law. See also Volume 2, Chapter 1.

Ability-To-Benefit (ATB) AlternativesEligibility of Students in Career Pathway Programs

Under the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 2015, a student who does not have a high school diploma or an equivalent such as a GED certificate, or who was not homeschooled and who first enrolls in an eligible program of study on or after July 1, 2014 can only become eligible for Title IV, HEA student assistance using one of the following ATB alternatives if the student is also enrolled in an “eligible career pathway program” as defined in section 484(d)(2) of the HEA:

- Passes an independently administered Department of Education approved ATB test.
- Completes at least 6 credit hours or 225 clock hours that are applicable toward a degree or certificate offered by the postsecondary institution.
- Completes a State process approved by the Secretary of Education.
Note: To date, no State process has ever been submitted for the Secretary's approval.

A Dear Colleague Letter providing additional guidance will be forthcoming.

Eligibility of Other Students Without a High School Diploma (Grandfathered Students)

As discussed in Dear Colleague Letter GEN-12-09, students who were enrolled in an eligible program of study prior to July 1, 2012 may continue

ATB options
