Beaver County CAN, in collaboration with the Pennsylvania LINK to Aging and Disabilities Resources of Allegheny, Beaver, Fayette, Greene, and Washington Counties, will offer training, resources and agency services in Beaver County to go from Housing Crisis to Housing stability.

Date: June 7, 2018 (Thursday)
Location: Penn State Beaver Campus, The Lodge,
Monaca, 15061
Time: 9:00 AM —11:30 am
Cost: Free (Continental Breakfast included)

About the Training :

The 2.5-hour session will address the specific needs of those experiencing or about to experience a housing crisis in Beaver County and how to serve clients more effectively. Resource options and being able to access them are key in providing financial, emotional, mental, and physical support to those in need. This training is designed to provide a framework for attendees to understand housing and homelessness in the County and provide options and resources to communicate to their clients. The panel will include:

Beaver County Continuum of Care Coordinator

Overview of the Beaver County CoC
Explain the new Coordinated Entry process for Beaver County

The Woman's Center of Beaver County

Explain what the Women's Center has to offer including shelter and counseling services
Review the steps to expect when referring clients for the intake process at the shelter

The Crossroads Men's Shelter

Review the process for getting clients into the shelter
Talk about homeless trends that they are seeing in our area

The Cornerstone of Beaver County

Provide an over view of TCBC homeless assistance programs

Beaver County Fair Housing Officer

Overview of fair housing
Landlord relationships

Who Should Attend:

All who work in organizations that deal with fostering positive communication and interaction with people/clients facing a housing crisis to achieving housing stability.
